DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claims 1, 11, 21, and 31 are objected to because of the following informalities:
The acronym "MP" and "MUX" in the claims needs to spell out. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

3. Claims 1, 2, 8, 10-12, 18, and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Deng et al (US Patent 6,701,432 B1).

Regarding to claims 1 and 11, Deng discloses a programmable network application specific integrated circuit 204, comprising a media access controller 408 configured to transmit and receive network data (fig. 4 col. 5 lines 29-31); a programmable logic (fig. 4; the elements resides within the inner box) having array dynamically configurable arithmetic logic units (fig. 4; elements 400-404), said programmable logic core configured to interface with said media access controller and implement least one application level function capable of generating meta-data (fig. 4 col. 5 lines 21-28; the firewall engine 400, the encryption/decryption engine 402, and the authentication engine 404 read on the application function), wherein said media access controller 408 and said programmable logic controller (fig. 4; the elements resides within the inner box) form least portion of a MP-block 204.

Regarding to claims 2 and 12, Deng discloses the programmable logic core may be programmed said least one application level function executing (col. 9 lines 58-64).

Regarding to claims 8 and 18, Deng discloses the media access controller 408 is configured to transmit and receive network via a physical interface device 120 (fig. 2 col. 4 lines 53-63).

Regarding to claims 10 and 20, Deng discloses the programmable logic core (fig. 4; the elements resides within the inner box) includes a management interface 400 configured to control and manage said media access controller 408 (fig. 4 col. 6 lines 4-11; the firewall engine 400 control and manage the packets transmit and receive through media access controller 408).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 3-7, 9, 13-17, and 19 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Art Unit: 2663

5. Claims 21-42 are allowed.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The prior art of record fails to teach or make obvious the step of or means for “a master subsystem configured to receive said meta-data from each of said plurality of MP-blocks and control said interconnect MUX to route said network data”, when such master subsystem is considered within the specific structure of the device recited in claim 21. The prior art of record fails to teach or make obvious the step of or means for “a master subsystem configured to receive said meta-data, control said interconnect MUX to route at least a portion of said network data containing audio between said first MP-block and said second MP-block, and control said interconnect MUX to route at least a portion said network data containing video between said first MP-block and said third MP-block”, when such master subsystem is considered within the specific structure of the device recited in claim 31.
